EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

JOB TITLE: LITIGATION SUPPORT ASSISTANT- PARALEGAL TRACK;
HCRC PARALEGAL I/II

JOB REQUISITION: 0617LSAP

DEPARTMENT STATEMENT

The Habeas Corpus Resource Center (HCRC), located in San Francisco, is accepting applications for Litigation Support Assistants (Paralegal Track) and Paralegals.

The HCRC was established as a judicial branch entity to provide direct legal representation to death row inmates in post-conviction proceedings in state and federal courts. In addition, the HCRC acts as a resource center to outside counsel for the defense of death row defendants. Positions will be filled depending upon the needs of the HCRC and the applicant pool.

RESPONSIBILITIES HCRC Litigation Support Assistant I (Paralegal Track): Litigation Support Assistant I is the entry-level class for applicants interested in becoming a Habeas Corpus Paralegal. Initially under close supervision, Litigation Support Assistants will be assigned to legal teams and will be trained to provide paralegal assistance to case teams. As experience is gained, there is greater independence of action within established guidelines.

HCRC Litigation Support Assistant II (Paralegal Track): Litigation Support Assistant II is the journey-level class of this series, fully competent to independently perform the full range of litigation support duties and interested in becoming a Habeas Corpus Paralegal. Members of this class exercise significant independence in performing a broad range of litigation support duties within general guidelines, but with limited independent decision-making. Employment in this class is restricted to candidates who possess the equivalent of a college degree.

HCRC Paralegal: Under supervision, a Paralegal I assists in performing factual research; locating, assembling, analyzing and coding evidence such as court, social, medical, and legal records; assisting attorneys with development of factual support for claims of relief and preparation for evidentiary hearings; maintaining case files and database information and scanning original documents into a database; operating a computerized system for managing documentation; gathering and tracking litigant information; maintaining integrity of legally relevant documents; working closely with investigators and attorneys to identify issues of concern and gather documentation; identifying, contacting, and providing information to expert witnesses.

HCRC Paralegal II: A Paralegal II independently performs the full range of varied and complex paralegal duties under general supervision.

HCRC Senior Paralegal: An HCRC Senior Paralegal provides lead direction to and reviews the work of assigned staff, and performs the more complex and specialized paralegal duties.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE NECESSARY

Litigation Support Assistant I:

Equivalent to a possession of a bachelor's degree

Litigation Support Assistant II:

Equivalent to possession of a bachelor's degree and one year performing paralegal support. Additional directly related college level education may be substituted for a portion of the experience OR One year as a Litigation Support Assistant I.

HCRC Paralegal I: Equivalent to one year of paralegal experience involving complex litigation; OR One year as a Litigation Support Assistant with the HCRC

HCRC Paralegal II: Equivalent to two years of paralegal experience involving complex litigation; OR One year as a Paralegal I with the HCRC.

HCRC Senior Paralegal: Equivalent to three years of paralegal experience involving capital or complex litigation; OR Two years as a Paralegal II with the HCRC. A paralegal certificate, JD degree, or directly related college-level education may be substituted for six months of the required experience.
